

Directions:

1) Find a job advertisement for a job you're interested in. It does not have to be the same as the one from your presentation, but it should be realistic (e.g., not the CEO of Samsung). It can be a job you want when you graduate or your ideal job in 2030.

2) Write a 2-paragraph essay about your ideal job using the following structure:

- Paragraph 1: Information about the job (and company if known)
 - Company name
 - Company information if known (e.g., location, number of employees, industry, etc.)
 - Job responsibilities
 - Minimum qualifications
- Paragraph 2: Reason why you want this job (think about these questions when writing)
 - What made you choose this job?
 - How does this job fit into your "Ideal Self" narrative?
 - How difficult do you think it will be to get this job?
 - What steps do you think you will need to take to get this job?

3) Essay should follow APA guidelines

- Heading with your name, professor's formal name, class name, date
- Title
- Double-spaced
- Times New Roman, 12-point font
- No cover page or references are required

4) General Requirements

- 250-350 words (excluding heading)
- Include a link to the job advertisement or copy and paste the job ad at the end of your essay

Due Date: BEFORE the Week 4 class meeting time
